

To all the Sisters of Saint Joseph, founded in 1650 at Le Puy, France, commemorating the 350th anniversary of the death of Father Jean Pierre Medaille, S.J.,

I give the assurance of my spiritual closeness and of my prayers that you will persevere in fidelity to your founding charism, drawing strength from the Eucharistic presence of Christ, and at the service of the poor and those in need with apostolic zeal.

Commending the Sisters, their Congregations and lay associates to the heavenly intercession of St. Joseph, I willingly impart my Apostolic Blessing as a pledge of abiding joy and peace in the Lord.

Rome, Saint John Lateran, 1 March 2020

To all the Sisters of Saint Joseph, founded in 1650 at Le Puy, France, as they commemorate the 350th anniversary of the death of Father Jean Pierre Medaille, S.J., I give the assurance of my spiritual closeness and my prayers that they will persevere in fidelity to their founding charism, drawing strength from the Eucharistic presence of Christ and serving the poor and those in need with apostolic zeal. Commending the Sisters, their Congregations and lay associates to the heavenly intercession of Saint Joseph, I willingly impart my Apostolic Blessing as a pledge of abiding joy and peace in the Lord.

Rome, Saint John Lateran, 1 March 2020

